Refund Policy for Online Classes

In the event of a student's cancellation, the school may not receive more than

- a) Five percent of the course price, not to exceed $50 and
- b) a pro rata portion of the total price, representing the proportion of services used or completed.
- c) In addition, the seller may receive the cost of any ancillary goods (study materials, exam) the buyer has received and used.

Any refund will be paid within ten days of cancellation. Cancellation will occur when the student mails the school notice of his or her intent to cancel; or when the school has actual notice of the student's intention to cancel; or when the student fails to attend consecutive scheduled classes constituting at least 25 percent of the total lessons or time contracted for, without informing the school in writing that s/he intends to cancel.

If you cancel this contract International Wine Center may keep only five percent of the cash price, but not to exceed fifty dollars, and a portion of the contract price based upon the lessons or services you have used. You may notify the seller of your intent to cancel by mail, addressed to Director, International Wine Center at 350 Seventh Avenue, Suite 1201, New York, NY 10001.

This course is a non-occupational course. Non-occupational courses are not intended to provide instruction that will result in the student's acquisition of occupational skills. Placement assistance by the school is not available for this course.
